

"That's a lie," when att'y made statement to jury.

Dr. W. C. Huntington, recently appointed federal agent in charge of local federal bureau of commerce, took charge.

Jesse Williams, negro, who attacked Mrs. Anna Schwartz, Wheaton, a month ago, sentenced to 24 years in prison.

Firm of Smiley, caterer, to close. Served Chicago's wealthiest families.

L. E. McGann, com'r public works, ordered to draw up ordinance by council sub-committee providing viaduct and bridge over river at N. Franklin.

Judge Newcomer decided suit fit pretty girl. She claims it didn't. Must pay tailor.

Fleet of barges to leave La Salle, Ill., for New Orleans on May 1. Freight to be carried to San Francisco. First water freight service to coast.

Lake Forest collage closed. Hero of play has scarlet fever. Rest of players under quarantine.

Mrs. Albert Vasey, wife of missing salesman, to testify before grand jury regarding disappearance of husband.

Ed Gard, former city detective, to serve 60-day sentence for contempt of court imposed 4 years ago.

Mrs. Louis Literhose, 26 N. Halsted, couldn't identify body of man resembling husband. Left her looking for work. Didn't return.

John Rossiner, 5809 S. Washtenaw av., fined $10 for beating horse.

Engagement of Dr. H. Clafflin, 77, not broken. To marry soon.

John Johnson, 1642 N. Park av., and daughter kissed and made up in court. She had shot him for abusing mother. He will reform.

Hal Burke released by Aurora police. Held as murder suspect.

200 River Forest citizens voted with postcards in primary.

Fred Berger's saloon, 249 W. 35th, robbed. $10.

W. H. Sage, former Wheaton druggist, may not get job of deputy collector of internal revenue. Fined for illegally selling liquor in drug store.

Safe in office of Dieges & Clust Co., jewelers, Schiller bldg., robbed. Jewelry worth $4,100 taken.

Chief Gleason ordered tags tied to steering wheels of autos of violators of 30-minute loop standing law. Many warned.

Evanston stricken with roller skating craze.

Bread being sold for 5 cents. Bigger bakers doubtful if price will stay down.

Ill. Man. Ass'n to hold meeting in Springfield on March 30. Slogan will be "Let business men alone."

Max Wall's saloon, 2426 Sheffield av., held up. $20.

George Dunn, att'y, 58, Fox Lake, found dying in Union station train yard. Thought heart disease.

Fannie Bielak, stenographer, out of work, jumped in lake. Swam out. Taken to hospital.

Street car struck auto at N. Clark and Oak sts. Mrs. J. A. Graham, 536 Deming pl., had face cut by flying glass.

Francis D. Hanna, former newspaper man, took job of morals inspector today.

John Worthington, former head of Am. Banking ass'n, placed on trial before Judge Petit. Con game charged. Pleaded not guilty.

Judge Sabath says poor housing conditions to blame for disrupted marriages. To get statistics.

W. Hypes, gen. sales mgr. of Marshall Field, elected pres. of Union league club.

William Lorimer and 6 other indicted officials of La Salle St. Savings bank pleaded not guilty before Federal Judge Carpenter.

Chief Gleason opened investigation into report that H. Goldman, 925 S. Hermitage av., suicided over losses in gambling house.

Three bandits got away with $175 and goods worth $200 from steamship agency and real estate office at 670 W. 18th st.